Tonight's 'Maine' Storylines

The Mariners and Railers were scheduled to meet on Sunday in Worcester, but the matchup was cancelled due to ECHL Health & Safety protocols. The Railers still played that day, losing 5-0 to the Adirondack Thunder, only to have their next game, scheduled for this past Monday against Reading, cancelled. All of that to say, today is the Mariners first game since December 18th and their first home contest since December 10th, also against Worcester. The Mariners picked up just two wins between Thanksgiving and Christmas, dropping 9 of their last 11 games. Prior to the break, they played a three-game series in Trois-Rivieres, losing the bookends, around a 4-3 shootout victory on December 17th. On the trip, Conner Bleackley picked up his first two goals of 2021-22, while the power play posted back-to-back multi-goal performances to finish the weekend, and remains at an impressive league-leading rate of 29%. The Mariners activated four key players off injured reserve this week, gaining the services of forward Alex Kile and defenseman Brycen Martin, J.D. Greenway and Nate Kallen. Kile will be making his season debut, after being a major offensive producer in each of his previous two campaigns as a Mariner as well as the 2020-21 season on the Florida Everblades. The Mariners made a free agent signing this week as well, bringing in rookie forward Matis Roelens, a Belgian native who played the last four seasons with the Gatineau Olympiques of the QMJHL.
