ALEX LOH — HEAD COACH & DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

2021-22 will be Loh's third season as head coach of the Thunder. Loh, 36, spent three seasons in Glens Falls serving under Cail MacLean and Brad Tapper before being named Head Coach prior to the 2018-19 season. The Morrisville, VT native was the Assistant Coach for the Thunder during the first two years of his tenure before receiving a promotion to Associate Coach prior to the start of 2017-18.

"We are proud to be able to promote from within as we've seen firsthand what Alex is capable of," Thunder Governor Ed Moore said. "He has worked under some great leaders in Cail and Brad and now it is his time to continue the progress that has been made since the franchise's beginning. With his years of experience at the AHL and ECHL levels, Alex was absolutely the best candidate for the job and we are excited to see what he can do as the leader of our team."

Prior to his time in Glens Falls, Loh spent three seasons on the coaching staff of the AHL's Portland Pirates. Loh also has experience coaching at the collegiate level with the Men's Division III program at Colby College and spent two seasons as the Head Coach of the varsity hockey program at Peoples Academy in Vermont from 2009-2011.
