Ben Boudreau

Head Coach, Fort Wayne Komets

Ben Boudreau was named the 29th Head Coach of the Fort Wayne Komets on May 30, 2019.

Boudreau, 36, began his pro career as a head coach after spending the last five seasons as an assistant, including the last two seasons with Fort Wayne.

Boudreau made his debut as an assistant coach with Bakersfield in 2014-15 in the ECHL. He logged two seasons as an assistant coach of the Norfolk Admirals prior to his arrival in Fort Wayne in 2017.

Ben Boudreau began skating a three-year pro career appearing in stints with the IHL's Flint Generals, the ECHL's South Carolina Stingrays, the CHL's Wichita Thunder and the Louisiana Ice Gators of the SPHL.

Boudreau completed his North American pro career in 2009-10 with Flint, appearing in 42 regular season games and all nine playoff games including the IHL Finals against Fort Wayne. He concluded his playing career in 2012-13 with Asnieres in France in the FFGH Division 3.

The St. Catharines, Ontario native is the son of former Komets standout forward Bruce Boudreau. Bruce Boudreau also served as Fort Wayne's head coach in 1993-94 and 1994-95.

Ben Boudreau resides in Fort Wayne with his wife Karla and their sons Cooper and Charlie.

Olivier Legault

Assistant Coach, Fort Wayne Komets

Olivier Legault (oh-LIV-ee-ay luh-GOE) made his pro debut with the Komets during the 2007-08 season and ranked third on the Komets with 178 penalty minutes in 55 games. He was on board for the 2007-08 IHL Regular Season title and Turner Cup Championship. In 2008-09 the Chibougamau, Quebec native repeated the feat and became a two-time Fort Wayne champion.

Prior to becoming pro, Legault was drafted in the fourth round, 93rd overall of the 2005 NHL Entry Draft by the Florida Panthers while a member of the Lewiston Maineiacs in the QMJHL. Legault completed five seasons in the QMJHL in 2007 before joining the Komets.

After a two-year stint with Fort Wayne, Legault was invited to the Los Angeles Kings 2009 NHL Training Camp before joining the Kalamazoo Wings of the ECHL where he appeared in 16 games during 2009-10. The forward re-joined Fort Wayne for the 2010-11 CHL season.

Legault followed his pro career as the head coach of Fort Wayne's Carroll High School Hockey team and led the Chargers to a pair of regular season championships and two city championships. He was also the head coach for the U18 AWP hockey force team for four seasons including two National Championship appearances.

Legault was named a Fort Wayne Komets assistant coach in 2016-17 and logged his fifth season as an assistant behind the Fort Wayne bench last season. Legault resides in Fort Wayne with his wife Rachel and four children, Emma, Easton, Beau and Bauer.
