K-WINGS STAY THE COURSE, STUN RAILERS IN OT

It was a straight up goaltenders duel in Worcester, and Justin Taylor owned the hero role as the Kalamazoo Wings (22-17-0-0) came from behind to clip the Worcester Railers (16-18-2-1) in overtime Saturday at the DCU Center, 2-1. It took just 53-seconds into the extra frame for Justin Taylor (13) to stuff the puck into the net off the initial Matheson Iacopelli shot. In a game where K-Wings goaltender Trevor Gorsuch (11-10) and Railers netminder Colton Ellis (7-4) combined to make 67 saves, it took Kalamazoo 57 minutes and 21 seconds to find the equalizer. But the captain was able to chip the puck to Matheson Iacopelli (6) at the blue line, and the Western Michigan product did the rest. Iacopelli used max effort to beat Worcester's Justin Osmanski and knife through the right circle to the front of the net for the backhand to forehead topshelf game-tying score. Justin Murray (9) took home the second assist on the play. Eric Kattelus (1) made history in his second game back, too. His assist on the game-winning goal moved him into a tie with Kevin Evans for 11th all time in K-Wings history for points scored (288). Trevor Gorsuch played his best game of the season Saturday. The K-Wings netminder has gone 3-1 over his last four starts and has made 147 saves along the way. None bigger than the 15 he made just minutes into the first period after helping his team kill off a 5 on 3 penalty situation. The K-Wings also overcame a 19-9 shot deficit after one period and finished on top of the score sheet with a final total of 36-34.

DROP THE HAMMER

Last night's overtime win allowed the K-Wings to claim something no other team in the ECHL can. Perfection. The K-Wings are a perfect 3-0 when faced with extra time, and one of those victories came by way of the shootout at Winterfest. The K-Wings earned the right to be proud of their 3rd line and starting goaltending. But really, last night's effort embodied the entire team. Justin Taylor and Matheson Iacopelli both finished with a goal and an assist, and Eric Kattelus, in just his second game back, got the second assist on the game winner. No matter what happens the rest of the way out, Kattelus now has a storybook comeback. And those are the type of wins that catapult a team down the stretch.

CLEAR THE TRACKS

The Worcester Railers are not a team to overlook, and this is the third time the two franchises have met a season. Despite their Conference and Division standings, this is a team that's really starting to hit their stride. The Railers longest winning streak of the season (4G) was snapped last Sunday (FW, 6-4) and they've won 5 of their last 7 games. Over that span of 7-games, Worcester has netted 34 goals. Players to watch: Jordan Smotherman (17-15-32) & Anthony Repaci (13-16-19). Smotherman's 9-game point streak (7G, 6A) was snapped Friday - but his leadership on the ice was apparent - as he's a constant offensive threat. Repaci extended his point streak to 6-games last Friday with a goal (5G, 5A) but had that and his streak of 4 games with a goal snapped on Saturday.

MARTIN TAKES RIGHTFUL PLACE IN HOF

K-Wings Assistant Coach Joel Martin was formally inducted into the 14th class of the ECHL Hall of Fame during the 2022 Warrior Hockey/ECHL All-Star Classic in Jacksonville on Jan. 17. The historic former netminder ranks second in league history with 22,962 minutes played, third with 394 appearances and fourth with 199 ECHL wins. Martin is also the only goaltender in league history to record three 30 victory seasons.

K-WING MILESTONES

Last night, Eric Kattelus notched his 288 point on the game winner, pushing him into a tie for No. 11 all-time in K-Wings history. Yesterday Matheson Iacopelli's 100th ECHL game. Friday, Greg Betzold played his 200th ECHL game. Justin Taylor (207) also passed K-Wings legend Eric Kattelus (206) for sole possession of 7th all-time in assists in franchise history with his helper on Jan. 21 against Wheeling.

HEAD COACH: Nick Bootland (13th season)

Bootland is in his 13th season as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for Kalamazoo, having originally been named to the position on May 29, 2008. He has led the K-Wings to the division title in four of their 11 seasons in the ECHL and to eight appearances in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. The winningest coach in K-Wings history, Bootland has compiled a record of 445-330-81 during his tenure behind the K-Wings bench. Of those victories, 401 came in the ECHL and the rest during his first season, when the Wings were members of the IHL. Bootland signed a four-year extension with Kalamazoo entering the 2019-20 season. He is the longest-tenured coach in the ECHL and became just the 5th coach in league history to coach 800 games, doing so on Sunday, December 12, 2021 versus the Indy Fuel.

Prior to his coaching career, the native of Shelburne, Ontario spent ten seasons as a pro across the AHL, IHL, UHL, and ECHL. He spent his final three full seasons in Kalamazoo and wore the 'C' as the team's captain. During the 2006 season, Bootland helped lead the Kalamazoo Wings to their first championship in 25 years, as they lifted the Colonial Cup as champions of the UHL. He was a ninth round (220th overall) draft pick of the Dallas Stars in the 1996 NHL Entry Draft.
