Tonight's 'Maine' Storylines

After a successful weekend in Worcester, the Mariners return home looking to make it three in a row over the Railers and stretch their lead in the standings. With 4-3/OT and 5-3 wins on Saturday and Sunday at DCU Center, the Mariners pulled ahead of the Railers for sole possession of the fourth and final North Division playoff spot, with 21 games remaining for each team. Keltie Jeri-Leon led the charge on Sunday, with a third period hat trick - the first of his career (also his first multi-goal game), and the sixth Mariners hat trick of the season - five of which have come against Worcester. Jeri-Leon is also currently riding a 3-game goal streak. Marc-Olivier Duquette also scored a goal on Sunday, his first goal, or point of any kind in 25 games. Stefanos Lekkas got the win in between the pipes in both games, making a total of 64 stops on 70 Worcester shots in his first two games as a Mariner. Zach Malatesta, who had three assists against his former team in Saturday's win, was loaned to AHL Providence this week. Despite going just 1/10 on the power play last weekend, the Mariners PP has connected at least once in 9 of the last 10 games. Maine has played only three home games since Feb. 1st, with 12 of their last 15 on the road overall. After another two game road set this weekend at Adirondack, 6 of the following 7 games will take place on home ice.
